

Introduction

Welcome to our frequently written news letter, the one that's regularly updated, yes I wish! Anyway that's all about to change, Stuart's going to have the website finished in the next couple of weeks and it will be updated weekly letting you what's going on, events, music and food nights and even down to the changes on the beer board.

So to start us off, this is a brief overview of what's going on over the coming months, but bear in mind this will change regularly as we add more and more to keep you guys entertained.

20-22 April ...

St George's Day Weekend Beer Festival, all beers featured are beers that were voted for by you. See here for more info.

23 April ...

Apologies, we always celebrate Saint Georges Night, but as you know still recovering from a broken leg and I didn't want to cancel the event at a later date and disappoint everyone.

25 April ...

Ben's boy-band will be entertaining us with there musical abilities (sorry Ben, don't know what your bands name is now).

2 May ...

Music by Minor Swing.

6 May ...

Our in-house quiz master will taxing your minds with our normal bank holiday brain storm, kicks off at 8.30 get here early to guarantee a table as it will get busy.

8 May ...

Wine Tasting, come along and sample some wines and local cheeses, this is a strictly ticket only affair so ask Steve for more details.

15 May ...

Meet the Brewer Night, we'll have the head brewer from Shepherd Neame here to guide us through some tasting, supper provided. Again this a strictly ticket-only affair.

21 May ...

I know I'm tempting fate but this is when Gloucester maybe playing Leicester, so keep it free as we will be arranging a coach.

23 May ...

Music by "The Whole Grand Scheme".

And looking ahead . . .

13 June ...

Leon Daye is back.

22 July ...

Boat Trip, more details to follow but the usual mayhem is guaranteed!!!

3 August ...

The Reverend Janet Bromley, back behind the bar raising money for charity.

10 August ...

Summer Beer Festival weekend

26 August ...

Frocester Chill Out

Just a note to say we will be selling the must-have fashion item this year, Frocester Beer Festival T-shirts all money raised going to charity. We'll keep you posted as and when they become available.

A Reminder . . .

This year Vale Vision is intending holding its first Dursley Beer Festival. The idea is to promote Dursley to a wider audience by hold a "Celebration of Food and Ale on the Cotswold Way". It's intended to have lots of events based on what's great about our part of the Cotswolds with lots of walks and celebration over the weekend of the 26th May 2006 (Bank Holiday Weekend). To make this work, we need people to get involved on all levels from security to helping set up stalls and power systems. Please contact Shirley at Vale Vision for more details.

Apologies . . .

This goes out to all the ladies that have to queue outside the W.C. on a busy night. We've known this is problem for sometime but work now is underway to rectify this situation. Please bear with us while the building work is going on.
